

Course Outline

Course number	RBE209
Course title	Comparative Insurance Law
Credit points	2 CP (3 ECTS)
Total hours	30
Lecture hours	22
Seminar and other hours	8
Course level	Bachelor
Prerequisites	None
Category	Mandatory		Restricted elective	X	Free elective

COURSE RESPONSIBLE

Name	Academic degree	Academic position
Vadim Mantrov	Dr. iur.	Visiting Docent

COURSE TEACHERS

Name	Academic degree	Academic position
Vadim Mantrov	Dr. iur.	Visiting Docent

COURSE ABSTRACT

The purpose of this study course is to introduce students with the concept, basic principles and the contents of insurance law; with regulatory acts of insurance law in Europe both at the European Union and at the national levels on a comparative basis; with basic provisions of supervising of insurance companies and insurance intermediaries; with conclusion of insurance contracts and specifics of their fulfilment in different insurance law types; and to provide general characteristics of claims arising from insurance law.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The course has the following objectives:

Knowledge:

1. students know the regulation of insurance law in European Union law and its impact on national law of European Union Member States;
2. students understand main institutes of insurance law and its regulation specifics in European Union Member States;
3. students know topical problem issues of application of the regulation of insurance law in European Union law and national law of European Union Member States;

Skills:

4. students are able orientate in the regulation of insurance law in European Union law in conjuncture with national law and among different insurance types;
5. students are able to analyse the most typical cases of insurance law;
6. students acquire skills for critical evaluation of court judgments in the field of insurance law;

Competences:

7. students independently apply the regulation of insurance law in European Union law and national law of European Union Member States;
8. students independently and critically are able to analyse typical situations on the basis of application of the of insurance law;
9. students understand and are able to apply modern scientific research and argumentation methods for the solution of typical situations in connection with the application of the regulation of insurance law.

GRADING CRITERIA

Criteria	Weighting
Tests at the end of seminars	50 %
Exam (open book)	50 %

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

For successful passing of the course, a student must take tests at the end of seminars depending on their topic and successfully take the exam. The final grade of the course will be the average grade of tests and the exam (based on the 50% - 50% proportion). In case if the average grade of tests is below 4, a student must re-take tests whose grade was below 4. If the average grade of tests is still under 4 after re-taking of tests, the student is not allowed to take an exam and must take a course anew. If the exam is graded below 4, a student is entitled to take a re-exam.

COURSE PLAN – MAIN SUBJECTS

No.	Subject	Planned hours
1	Introduction to insurance law and insurance terms	8
3	Insurance contracts: signing, execution and termination specifics	6
4	Insurance types (by the insured object) and insurance money	10
5	Protection of interests of persons involved in insurance	6